Colbert Concert Course

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

SEVENTH CONCERT

KATHLEEN PARLOW

The Greatest Living Woman Violinist

MR. FRED MELSOM GEE

At the Piano

THURSDAY EVE., MARCH 24TH, 1921

NORMAL SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

8:15 P. M.

General Direction—JESSICA COLBERT

Local Management—MARION E. IVES

Program for the Seventh Concert
Thursday Evening, March 24th

1. "La Folia" Corelli
(Theme and Variations)

2. Concerto F# Minor..... Ernst
Allegro Pathetic

3. (a) Slavic Melody Dvorak
(b) Hungarian Dance Brahms-Joachim
(c) Andante Tschaikowsky
(d) Moto Perpetuo..... Frank Bridge

4. (a) Hymn to the Sun..... Rimsky-Korsakoff
(b) Habanera Sarasate

The Piano is the Steinway

Last Concert of the
COLBERT CONCERT COURSE

Friday Evening, April 15th

SAN FRANCISCO CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY

With

MABEL RIEGELMAN
Lyric Soprano

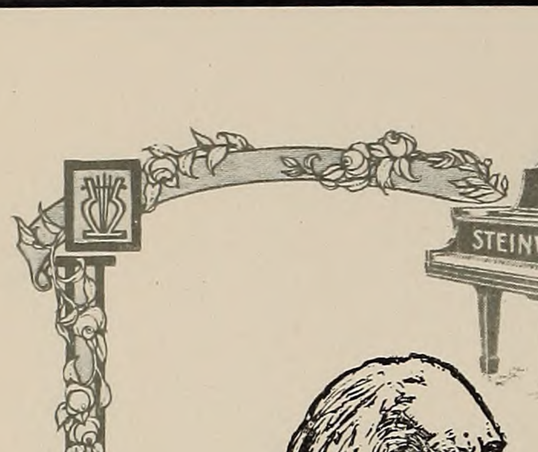

You are invited to subscribe for the 1921-1922 Colbert Concert Course which promises to be even more attractive than the one presented this season. Only nationally known artists will be engaged.

There will be eight concerts, the prices remaining the same $7.00 for season tickets with a special student rate for $3.50. No war tax.

The seat reservation will open at Sherman, Clay & Company, Monday morning, April 4th at 10 o'clock. Every seat should be sold before the last concert on April 15th. No favoritism will be shown and mail orders will be filled as received. Please make checks payable to JESSICA COLBERT.

The Piano is the Steinway

Prog-550
c.1

LISZT
CORTOT
and the DUO-ART

Liszt

FRANZ LISZT, beloved pianist and composer, was born in Hungary in 1811 and died in 1886. ¶ Had he lived today, his art would doubtless be as permanently recorded as that of Paderewski, Cortot, Hofmann, Ganz, Grainger, and the other world-famed artists who play today for the DUO-ART reproducing piano. ¶ A suggestion: Come in and hear Alfred Cortot play Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 11" on the marvelous DUO-ART.

Sherman, Clay & Co.

190 South First St., San Jose
San Francisco, Oakland,
Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno